Then a command was given, but 1 could not understand it, and I had to judge from the attitude they occupled on the floor; I suppose it was to "act the Muscovy duck," for they at once bowed their heads half way to the floor, bowing to each other on the right and left. The Muscovy will bow to everything they meet; nothing more polite than they. I had to judge of another command by the actions of the party. I suppose it was to 'charge your partner backwards," for the lady came dancing up to her partner with her back to him, but he would swing round to the front

Orders from the Country Attended to Promptly. TO STOCK BREEDERS ! COAL!

The "Great West" has become an agricul-tural country and its thousands of colored laborers have created a Western Gemand for mules. Operators of mines have also learn-ed that mules are better adapted to their work than horses; besides this, the South-ern market must be supplied. The demand is now greater than the supply, and will continue so for many years to come. Recog-nizing these truths, we have determined to become breeders, not only of mules, but of .
